CONNECTION Newsletter

OPEN HEARTS. OPEN MINDS. OPEN DOORS.™

XO

I have used these letter symbols for hug “X” and kiss “O” all of my life. My mom taught me about them when I was young and I remember putting them on thank you notes to my Nana for gifts I’d received. A ‘cute’ way to offer a token of my affection rather than a committed statement like writing out the words, “I love you.”

This month of February heightens our awareness of love with the Hallmark commercials, storefront displays and special “package deals” at many restaurants and hotels promoting loving expressions to our special ones through cards, gifts and a night on the town. Great for those who can afford it and for those who have a ‘special one’.

Our gospel call is to love God, ourselves and ALL others ALL the time, every day. In this world where stress, poverty, under employment and continuing injustices of many kinds this call is daunting. As we prepare to enter the Lenten season of reflection, perhaps the Valentine’s Day reminder is our push into practicing loving acts every day.

People have edges: fear and misinformation often drive attitudes and action. Apathy and over-burdened lives cause many to miss opportunities to offer loving kindness to themselves and to others.

Friends, our community is so great at our Sunday morning welcome! Our community offers a wonderfully welcoming meal every Sunday afternoon too! We purposefully extend invitations to the greater community to our events and we welcome community groups to use our space for their meetings, classes and events. This is all good stuff, but sometimes it feels to me like X’s and O’s. It feels like a cute token of our love for these neighbors, strangers and friends. And, sometimes I wonder, is that how it feels to those who receive from us these acts of welcome?

This Lent I am asking us to pray deeply, talk seriously and work vigorously to heed the leading of the Spirit on our continuing quest to welcome ALL. Let us look, listen, speak and pray together about how every person experiences our ministry efforts and then let us create a spirit of willingness to further extend ourselves to offer God’s love to ALL through the ministry we share in this place. Commit to being in

Friends, It's Time to Have "The Talk"

At our January Administrative Council meeting we reviewed an article from Jim Wallis entitled 15 Things a Church Needs to Do in 2015. Number 6 on that list was "Have honest conversations about race." It's no secret to any of us that Milwaukee is the most segregated city in our country and that is reflected within our own congregation by the fact we are 99% White...this despite the fact that our zip code is only 86% White.

Recent events here in our city and around our nation have once again brought the issue of race to the forefront. Wallis suggests that "how the church responds to the issue of race in the 21st century will be extremely important."

Beginning February 23rd we'll have an opportunity to respond ourselves as Pastor Rob Odum (Central UMC), Pastor Afi Dobbins (Solomon Community Temple UMC) and I join forces to co-lead a 6-week Lenten study. We will be reading the groundbreaking 2010 book The New Jim Crow, Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness by Michelle Alexander.

This book looks at how the so-called "War on Drugs" has resulted in unbelievably disproportionate differences in the arrests and especially in the sentencing of African-American males as opposed to White males. It also addresses the private prison system which in this country translates to big business...a business which is dependent on an ever-increasing supply of prisoners.

This will not be an easy book for most Whites to read as it forces us to confront some ugly truths. Are you willing? Are you willing to begin a conversation that will most certainly challenge you but might also help us understand better the struggles our brothers and sisters in the Black community face each and every day? I hope you will join me.

This class will take place at Central United Methodist Church, 639 N. 25th Street, from 6:30pm to 8:00pm, beginning Monday, Feb. 23rd and ending on Monday, March 30th. Carpooling is recommended for ease of parking. I have books available for purchase ($16). See me to get yours.

Who will go with me?

Blessings,

Pastor Andy

“Being” A Reconciling Church

Last Spring I visited Bay View United Methodist Church for the first time. I met in the Gathering Space with Pastor Kelly for what was, in some ways, an interview for me. It was also an opportunity for me to see if I thought BVUMC would be a good fit for me and my learning goals. There were a lot of clues in that first meeting that the church would be a good fit for me, but the one that really stuck out to me was a rainbow flag in the Gathering Space. I make a point when I visit a new church to look for what is welcoming or not so welcoming about the space. I asked Kelly about the flag and she told me that at the time the church was working through discussions about being a Reconciling United Methodist Church. I was excited to learn over the summer that the vote had taken place and Bay View United Methodist Church could officially be part of the Reconciling Ministries Network.

I was excited to learn of the church’s welcoming nature and its public stance for the inclusion of ALL of God’s children. I was excited because one of my learning goals was to find out what happens next. How does an open, inclusive church live their statement of welcome? Who are we to be as a community of faith that opens its doors to the broader community of Bay View? How is our commitment to love our neighbor reflected in our witness?

Let us continue to explore what it means to be a reconciling church and to offer welcome to ALL those who may pass through the doors of the church. If you have thoughts on how, as a community of faith, we can live our words of welcome, speak to me before or after church or email me at pastoreddie@bayviewumc.org

Memory Café Schedule

Dates for 2015

March 16th, 2015

April 20th, 2015

May 18th, 2015

July 20th, 2015

August 17th, 2015

Our partnership with The Alzheimer's Association will begin on Monday, February 16, 2015 as we host our first Memory Café from 1pm to 2:30pm. We had a number of our members, as well as some community friends, attend a special training with Wendy Betley, to help prepare us for our role as hosts for these once a month gatherings.

The Memory Café is not a support group but rather provides an outlet for couples to simply have fun and enjoy themselves with singing, games and other group activities. We'll certainly be learning as we go, but our plan is to offer this to our community the third Monday of each month. Early on we'll be relying on the expertise of the Alzheimer's Association to guide our sessions, but in time we expect the group participants will help us learn how best to provide for them.

If you know a couple, one of them dealing with early stage memory issues, we encourage you to have them contact Wendy at wendy.betley@alz.org or at 414-479-8800 for more information about how to join this group. We're excited to offer this!

Ministry Spotlight

by Katy Meyer

Focus On:

Ministry Spotlight: Divine Intervention

What began as a winter service to individuals living without a warm home, has become a year round ministry. Leading the effort is Tippecanoe Presbyterian Church located at 125 W. Saveland, in the Bay View neighborhood. We know that Wisconsin nights can be deathly bitter at their worst and terribly uncomfortable even at their best. Divine Intervention doors are open nightly December 1 - March 31 and the program is considered an "Overnight Prayer Vigil/Warming Room". Perhaps one of the greatest benefits of the ministry is the growth of an on-going meal program called S.O.S. Meals (Sharing Our Suppers), which are Friday nights at 6pm April 1 - November 31 and are hosted at various Bay View Churches. WE ARE ONE OF THOSE CHURCHES! This is a chance for building community and bridges of understanding. I had the opportunity to serve as a host for a Friday night potluck this Fall and it was a excellent experience to humbly host and share a meal. The program focus is dignity so diners can serve themselves rather than holding out their plate for a "handout". There are 39 intra-faith communities that work together and attempt to provide these basic needs of food, warmth and companionship.

How can YOU HELP? Well, in the Winter months monetary and in-kind donations are extremely appreciated. You can also volunteer as a Nightly Host after attending an annual training session.

WISH LIST ITEMS INCLUDE:

- Bus tickets (for health, dental appointments, interviews, support during inclement weather)
- Environmentally friendly rock salt for winter sidewalks
- Decaf and Regular Fair-trade Coffee, Creamer and Sugar
- Toilet Paper & Paper Towels & Kleenex and cough drops
- New/Gently used socks, new underwear, male and female long johns, bras, warm gloves
- The ONLY CLOTHES needed are: Sweat pants and shirts for medium sized for men and medium/large sized for women.
- Shavers
- Hand warmers
- Individual portioned laundry soap (pods work great) and drier sheets.
- McDonalds Gift Cards and Target Gift Cards

Campers that do not participate in the Divine Intervention Warming Room are also served by a program called "Larry Under the Bridge", which provides bagged dinners and basic supplies 52 Sundays per year!

When Spring comes around again, won't you join us in the Gathering Space and volunteer as hosts for Sharing Our Supper?

Watch out for Penguins! We have been learning about ice and snow, even brining the snow inside! We will be learning about penguins and will soon be making life-size penguins for the hall. We are having our parent teacher conferences earlier this year to help parents as they select a school for next year.

If you know of someone whose child will be 3 by Dec 31st, 2015 we will have an Open House on March 1st at 12:30pm. More details to come.
